

YOU'RE INVITED

Please join us for a discussion session on the

OECD Privacy Guidelines Anniversary and Review

Wednesday, May 5, 2010
2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Session to be held at
1900 K Street, NW
Washington, DC

Videoconference available at
200 Park Avenue
New York, NY

The Privacy and Information Management Practice and the Centre for Information Policy Leadership at Hunton & Williams LLP are pleased to host a discussion session marking the 30th anniversary of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development Privacy Guidelines.

Ambassador Philip Verweer, U.S. Department of State, will offer welcoming remarks.

Michael Donohue, OECD Secretariat, will discuss OECD plans to celebrate the anniversary and to review the Privacy Guidelines to determine whether they need to be updated to meet the requirements of the current privacy environment.

RSVP to Kiisha Jennings (kjennings@hunton.com) by Friday, April 30