Media Reports on Real Estate Professionals "Rockers in Relief" Benefit Concert

January 3, 2013

Real Estate professionals from across the industry gathered on October 24 in New York City for a night of classic rock-influenced performances. The 2nd Annual Real Estate Rockers in Relief, organized by New York real estate partner, Carl Schwartz and his client The World-Wide Group, drew over 100 participants and supporters to raise awareness and funds for JDRC, a charity that assists communities in domestic disaster recovery and relief.

The concert took place at the Canal Room and featured bands including Carl Schwartz's band, Normal by Day, as well the bands of our clients – Midlife (with David Lowenfeld of the World-Wide Group), RIPChORD (with Howard Glatzer of 40 North Properties, LLC and Mitchell Sikora JTP Capital, LLC).

Several publications covered the event, including: The Real Deal Blog, GlobeSt.com, Real Estate Weekly, and Commercial Observer. Schwartz's practice focuses on representing commercial real estate owners, developers and lenders in local, national and international transactions.
